Description

Hunters have exacting requirements when it comes to Boar Hunters like the Walther La Chasse. A well-placed jab is required to get the job done quickly. That's why this knife has a blade almost 240 mm long and 40 mm in width, plus a blood groove. The robust 440C steel blade is adorned with a branch sign, a hunter's salute and the Walther banner logo, a promise of quality. Between the blade and the pakkawood handle, the steel handguard carries the inscription La Chasse – the hunt. Unlike a boar spear, the Boar Hunter can easily be carried on your belt with the included leather sheath.
